TRESURER'S REPORT:

The treasurer's report for the July meeting was posted to the website prior to acceptance by the membership.

DELEGATE'S REPORT:

Last month's delegates meeting we had prospective delegates come to the meeting. The president was missing, so there was a few complications related to this. The next delegates meeting is in October, the annual business meeting. NFBOA is half of the organizations that have paid their dues to NYSBOC for the year. The state's report was brief. There was a code's council meeting on February 8th. It is available online on the Department of State website meetings page. The main concern on the code changes was for natural gas stoves in homes and the electrification of new buildings. There will be limited training available from the department of state but dates were not announced. There appears to be a push back to in person trainings. The next NYSBOC meeting will be in Westchester in June. There was discussions regarding "hoarding/unsanitary conditions" and the legal process regarding the removal of residences for the cleaning of the homes to make them habitable.

EDUCATION:

The annual training program will be at the Marriot again after a successful

NEW/OLD BUSINESS:

Make sure to use the current copy of the scholarship reimbursement program. There was an issue with addresses due to old applications being use. The DEC has made some changes as of January first regarding wetlands. As an organization we are considering retaining a booth at the Buffalo Home Show. Volunteers would be requested to engage with the public with possibilities for reimbursement for the annual training fees or NFBOA's clothing that was for sale at the conference in January. There is openings in Wheatfield for code enforcement officers. Details can be obtained by contacting the Wheatfield code enforcement department.

The meeting was adjourned. The next meeting will be May 14th, at Illo DiPaolo's Restaurant 3785 South Park Ave, Blasdell, NY 14219
